Kay Antill is the chosen artist with her proposal "The Spirit of Pine Hills" a 12 feet high by 15 feet wide three paneled mosaic mural to be installed on the entry wall. Comprised of vibrant colors with many patterns from world cultures woven though. The motifs and patterns used within the sun are inspired by the basket weaves from Latin America, Africa and Native American cultures. The bottom half of the mural is grounded by layers of patterns coming together to form a tapestry or quilt-like whole. Each layer is divided by bands of shiny, reflective mirror as well as the inspiring words from the Pine Hills Brand Statement.

It is a truly beautiful design, and we look forward to seeing her work in the fall of 2021.
