New Public Art and Program News

City of Boynton Beach

Albert Paley, one of the world's prominent metal sculptors has collaborated with Boynton's Art in Public Places on an outdoor exhibit called, "Albert on the Avenue." The national exhibit is an easy, self-guided tour in the City's Cultural District, and consists of six massive sculptures totaling 17 tons. "Cavalcade," commissioned by the developers of 500 Ocean, reaches 40-feet into the sky, making it the tallest public art in the Palm Beaches. Visit <http://bit.ly/AlbertPaley> for more information.
